REPORT
OF THE SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

In compliance with the law, the school committee submits the following report for the year ending Feb. 28, 1882: —

DISTRICT No. 1.

First term under the instruction of Miss Hattie L. Nutting, the second term taught by Mr. Ernest O. Sylvester of Haverhill, Mass. Although it is a very hard school, it made a decided improvement. Both have gained the well earned reputation of being first-class teachers.

DISTRICT No. 2.

Three terms, under the instruction of Mrs. Julia A. Eaton, Miss Mary L. Brown, and Miss Minnie T. Swain, respectively. The teachers labored faithfully and did their duty well, but it was disastrous to the interest of the pupils that so short a school should be divided into three terms, under the instruction of as many teachers.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Two terms, under the instruction of Miss Florence E. Truell. The order in this school was not as good as could be desired; it will require the services of a faithful, energetic teacher to restore the school to its former reputation.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Two terms, taught by Miss Lillie R. Dolber. This could not be otherwise than a good school, where teacher, pupils, and parents were in perfect unison. The school has made a decided progress.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

Two terms, Minnie T. Swain, teacher. This was quite a small school, but required a good stock of patience on the part of the teacher. Miss S. had good success with the school, and a few of the scholars made good progress during the year.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Two terms, taught by Miss Alice D. Bean. During the first term the school made a decided advance. Second term, the pupils seemed to have lost their former interest; consequently, the school was not quite satisfactory to your committee.

DISTRICT NO. 7.

Miss Jennie A. Palmer teacher for the year. Owing to sickness in the district, the first term was closed without an examination; but at the close of the fall term the school appeared well and showed good advancement. Though Miss P. has had little experience, she promises to be a fine teacher.

DISTRICT NO. 8.

Three terms, taught by Miss Ellen S. Eaton, Miss Emily Sanborn, and Miss Lillie R. Dolber, respectively. Though all were excellent teachers, and labored for the interest of the scholars, it would have been much better for the pupils if one teacher had retained the school throughout the year.

DISTRICT NO. 9.

Mr. Nathan I. Moore, teacher for the year. In the main this school is not so far advanced as many others in town. Mr. Moore did his work well, and if the parents had shown a more lively interest in the school it would have been a great benefit to the pupils.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

Two terms, taught by Miss Margaret Jackson and Mrs. Julia A. Eaton, both very fine teachers. This is one of the largest schools in town, and the teachers met with marked success.

DISTRICT NO. 11.

UNION DISTRICT.

First term taught by Miss Ruth A. Emerson. We were not notified of the close, and did not visit the school except at the commencement, yet we have no doubt that Miss E. met with her former good success.

Second term taught by Miss Nettie J. Hoag of Stratham. Miss Hoag was a competent and successful teacher.

DISTRICT NO. 12.

One term, taught by Miss Hattie L. Nutting. This school in the past has not been kept up to the required standard, but through the untiring efforts of parents and teacher it has partially regained its proper standing.

DISTRICT NO. 13.

Two terms, taught by Miss M. Annie Fitts. Miss Fitts worked with a will, did her duty as a teacher, and was crowned with success, as the parents present at the examinations could readily see.

DISTRICT NO. 14.

Two terms; first taught by Miss Abbie Laura Page, second by Miss Ellen S. Eaton. Both were very efficient teachers and did a good work for the school. Much interest was manifested by the parents during each term.

J. H. NUTTING,
Superintendent of Schools.
